James Madison Martin

James Madison Martin was born 11 Dec. 1867 in Phelps Co. MO and died in 1947, Dallas, Texas. He was the oldest child of Charles Nicholas MARTIN and Valeria SIMPSON who are found in the 1880 census of Phelps county. Charles was a farmer and stock raiser.

Dr. Martin's paternal grandparents were Madison Green MARTIN (1813-1894) and Anastasie PIERRE (1812-1903) of St. Louis, Maries and Crawford counties, MO. His paternal grandfather was James E. SIMPSON of Phelps county. Dr. Martin was a descendant of Revolutionary soldier Adam MARTIN. [See Martin Family Quarterly - Vol. I, #1 and #2].

He grew up on a farm and attended a one room school in Phelps county and received his degree from St. Louis College of Physicians & Surgeons where he studied pharmacy and medicine.

On 22 Jan. 1893 he married Emma AUERBACH, daughter of Lewis and Harriett AUERBACH. Lewis AUERBACH immigrated to the United States from Germany and Harriett was county treasurer and owned a hotel in Phelps Co. MO. While in Texas visiting relatives for a needed rest, James Madison MARTIN found the people in a typhoid outbreak and remained in Hill Co. TX.

He made an impressive picture traveling around the country. He was 6' 6" tall and made his rounds in a black cutaway coat with long tails and broad brimmed Stetson. He insured confidence in his patients.

After studying a correspondence course he assembled his own x-ray producing equipment and eventually became an authority on the subject. By 1912 he published a book on x-ray therapy. Photographs in the book of patients treated with x-ray for cancer of the skin rival results of today.

James Madison MARTIN, M. D. moved to Dallas, Texas about 1905 and became the first professor of Radiology at Baylor Medical School. He was an x-ray and radium pioneer in the Southwest. He was active in the American Cancer Society and was one of the earliest crusaders against smoking. He was a man of many varied interests.

His son, Charles Louis MARTIN, and grandson, James Addison MARTIN, also became doctors. Charles Louis MARTIN passed away this year at the age of 85 and his son James Addison MARTIN practices medicine in Dallas.

James Madison MARTIN was a first cousin of the editor's paternal grandfather, David Springer MARTIN, of Valley View, Cooke Co. TX.

[Editor's note: for further information on this family see Vol. I, p. 14 and 23-29. CORRECTION: On page 14 of Volume I we gave data on the children of Madison Green MARTIN. The first seven children were born in Crawford Co. MO and not Maries Co. MO. Sarah Malzenia MARTIN married David SPRINGER not George SPRINGER.]

Malzenia MARTIN, fourth child of Madison Green MARTIN and Anastasia PIERRE, was born 21 March 1843 in Crawford Co. MO, d. 25 July 1917 in Dublin, Erath Co. TX. Her brother, Charles Nicholas MARTIN, is mentioned in the article on page 64 of this issue. Malzenia is listed in the 1850 census of Crawford Co. MO as Sarah M. MARTIN, age 8, living with her parents. She was 17 years old and living with her parents in the 1860 census of Maries Co. MO.

Sarah Malzenia MARTIN married about 1860 to David SPRINGER, b. 4 Jan. 1833, St. Louis Co. MO, d. 18 June 1893, Blooming Grove, TX. They are both buried in Italy Cemetery, Italy, Ellis Co. TX. David SPRINGER served in the CSA and moved to Italy, TX about 1873 where he owned a mercantile store. David and Malzenia had three children: (1) Ora Maye SPRINGER m. John WATSON; (2)* Victoria Belle SPRINGER m. Julius Cesear LANE; and (3) George SPRINGER m. Rowena REED.

Victoria Belle SPRINGER, dau. of David SPRINGER and Sarah Malzenia MARTIN, was born 6 April 1862 and died 27 April 1928, Waxahachie, Ellis Co. TX. She married 21 Aug. 1877 to Julius Cesear LANE, b. 24 Aug. 1850, Preble Co. Ohio, d. 18 Dec. 1915, Dublin, TX. Julius C. LANE and Victoria Belle SPRINGER had nine children. All of the girls played piano, organ and violin and were school teachers. [1] Inez Belle LANE m. John D. STRICKLIN; [2] Ora Maye LANE m. Dr. Thomas Ford BRYAN; [3] Jesse LANE died at birth; [4] Birdie Leona LANE m. Evan Jones WELCH; [5] Malzenie Elizabeth LANE m. Barney Franklin WORD; [6] Julius David LANE was an accountant and nursery botanist, m. Florence MARKHAM; [7] John Lincoln LANE was an accountant, gin operator and U. S. mail carrier. He m. [1914]

Dear Eleanor A. Martin:

I feel that I want to write you a letter. You are six and one half months old, do not know how old daddy feels. The grippe and rheumatism have settled in his stomach and around his heart. The big trouble is he cannot get his breath.

I have come to the point to say, "Thy will be done on earth as in Heaven." I realize I can only trust Mamma my sweet little baby and my soul in God's care.

I very earnestly pray that God will bless you with intellect, happiness, success and a good husband when you get old enough, and true religion. I ask you to be a good girl, never to fail to do the right thing. Ask yourself when others are trying to influence you to do wrong, "What would papa and grandma say if they were by?" Be good and kind and obey mother, treat your schoolmates kind and courteous and they will love you. Do not mention the faults of other people to anyone and they will not talk about yours. Go to school regular, learn every lesson well. Let your motto be: How well I learn my lessons; it is not so much how many books I have studied, but how well I understand them." When not in school, work and be useful. Learn to sew, cut and make your own dresses and clothing. Go clean and neat, but do not be foppish and extravagant. Save your little money. Always save it so you will have plenty when you are old. Forego pleasures when they cost too much. Success rests on economy, industry and effort to hold fast. Do not feel elated and egotistic because you may have a little more than your neighbor's girls. Never brag, but feel thankful that the good Lord has blessed your ancestors and you enough to give it to you. Pray God every night to help and keep you from all dangers and bless you with His presence and power.

I do not know what will be my final getting well. I am very anxious to know. It seems I am gradually growing weaker. I would like to get up again if it is the Lord's will, but if not I pray Him to go with me through it. I can only say, "Thy will be done." Fit and prepare me to meet it as a Christian should do. I know Thou can so prepare me for the change. If I cannot turn to Thee, where can I go else? Do help me to place my soul and future in Thy care. I resign my sweet little Eleanor, Minna, and what little I have in Thy keeping. What more can I do?

I. F. Martin

Recommended Books

A FAMILY HISTORY OF THOMAS MARTIN, SR. - A NORTH CAROLINA AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER by Jenny MARTIN FAGG. Fort Worth: Arrow-Curtis Printing Co., 1976. $25.00 (TX residents add 6% sales tax) Available from Jenny Martin Fagg, 4314 Nenana, Houston, TX 77035. 6" x 9" hardbound, offset printing, 385 pages, every name and locality index plus many maps, photographs and large 10 generation foldout chart. Fully documented. [This book was originally reviewed in Vol. II #4, p. 46].

This book is a masterpiece. It is an example of what a genealogical book should be with the best order and documentation. Thomas MARTIN (1756-1835) was born in Brunswick Co. VA and died in York Dist. SC. He married Sabra ____. Thomas was the son of William MARTIN who died before 23 July 1795 in Chatham Co. NC. On that date his sons William of York Co. SC and Thomas sold his land grant.

Thomas MARTIN was a pensioned Revolutionary soldier who migrated from Chatham Co. NC to Lincoln Co. NC to York Dist. SC. His children were (1) William, b. 17 Dec. 1776 m. Priscilla; (2) Thomas, Jr., b. 12 Dec. 1778 m. Rhoda WASHBURN, ca. 1799 and Elizabeth ca. 1809. Thomas, Jr. died in York Dist. SC; (3) John, b. 27 Feb. 1784; (4) Elisabeth; and (5) Valentine MARTIN, b. 15 March 1790, York Dist. SC, gone by 1830.

The book follows descendants to Carroll Co. GA; Forsyth Co. GA; Pickens Co. GA; Bartow Co. GA; Benton Co. Ark.; and many locations from GA to Henderson Co. TX. and beyond. Most lineages are carried to the present.

THE MARTINS: THEY SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES by Robert C. BLOESSER. Shawnee Mission, KS: Inter Collegiate Press, 1976. $15.00. Available from the author Robert Bloesser, 563 Heathertree Lane, San Jose, CA 95129. 8 1/2" x 11" hardbound, offset printing, family photographs, 353 pages, not indexed. [This book was originally reviewed in Vol. II, #2, p. 43].

Bob Bloesser is a descendant of James MARTIN and Elizabeth CRAWFORD. James' will was proved in 1775, Amherst Co. VA. Line of descent: James MARTIN m. Sarah HARRIS; Tyree MARTIN m. Mourning JONES; Robert Jones MARTIN m. Eliza Jane ROBERTS. Tyree MARTIN (1774-1849) migrated from Virginia through the Cumberland Gap to Madison Co. KY and was one of the earliest settlers of St. Louis Co. MO; he was in Boone Co. MO by 1820. Tyree's son, Robert, moved from Boone to Vernon Co. MO in 1867.

Included are interviews with eight daughters of Robert MARTIN b. 1889 to 1910 including the author's mother, Kittie MARTIN BLOESSER, b. 1900.

This book is a beautifully written loving tribute to a remarkable family. Every descendant of James MARTIN and Elizabeth CRAWFORD would cherish it.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

WE WILL SOON BEGIN PUBLISHING COMPLETE STATEWIDE CENSUS LISTINGS FOR EVERY MARTIN (COMPLETE HOUSEHOLD LISTINGS) FOR 1850 CENSUS - ALA, ARK, GA, KY, IOWA, ILL, IND, LA, MISS, MO, NC, OHIO, SC AND VA.

ALSO NEARING COMPLETION IS THE 1860 TX CENSUS THANKS TO SYLVIA ROBERTSON. WE ARE WORKING ON 1860 KS & NEB. TOO.

IN PROGRESS: 1790-1840 CENSUS FOR NC & VA. 1820-1840 FOR KY, ILL, IND, LA, MISS, MO AND SC.

EVEN THOUGH ALL LISTINGS WILL BE RECHECKED IT WILL HELP SO MUCH IF YOU COULD SEND ANY CENSUS 1790-1880 THAT YOU HAVE READ FROM MICROFILM AND COPIED ALL MARTINS. YOU COULD HELP ANOTHER RESEARCHER SAVE YEARS OF WORK.

YOU CAN CHECK WITH US TO SEE IF WE ALREADY HAVE THE CENSUS YOU WANT TO CONTRIBUTE. BUT, TWO READINGS OF THE SAME CENSUS CAN HELP IN LOCATING ANY ERRORS OR MISSED PAGES.

CORRECTION

In Vol. IV #4, p. 105 we stated Parke Co. Ind. was created from Vigo Co. Ind. This fact was taken from the Handy Book for Genealogists and is incorrect.

After Parke Co. Ind. was surveyed the land was sold at the land office in Terre Haute, Vigo county, but Parke was never part of Vigo Co. We thank Judy Harvey for this correction.

...maybe it's my fault let's discuss it...

Dear Subscriber: Maybe we haven't made clear what the Martin Family Quarterly needs to help you. You must send us a group sheet of the progenitor of your Martin family (with wife & children). Include all facts you have proven and the sources. We will research the files and send any data found at no charge to you. This is a service for our subscribers. We can't check the files unless we know who your ancestors are. We will also send you names of any persons working on your line who have contacted the quarterly. If we can't help a query or subscriber lineage could bring results.

Would like to correspond with the descendants of the above MARTINs. Also have this additional information: John G. MARTIN's brother, Samuel, had two sons, Albert and Samuel MARTIN, who were doctors in Southeast Missouri. Two sons of John G. MARTIN fought each other in the Civil War. Most of this family was in Southeast Missouri (probably Mississippi & New Madrid counties) by 1890. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

My great grandfather, Charles H. MARTIN, was b. in Bedford Co. VA ca. 1810. He always signed his name with the H. to distinguish himself from the numerous Charles' in Bedford & Campbell counties. Before 1840 he walked to Fayette Co. WV (now the Clear Fork area of Coal River in Raleigh County) where he homesteaded a large acreage. In 1842 he married Sarah ALEXANDER in Pratt, Kanawha Co. WV. They had two sons, William & George Washington MARTIN. Charles H. died ca. 1855/56 of asthmatic complications. His trade was that of a tailor and cobbler. My grandfather, George, was reared by his grandparents who know nothing of his father.

I have been at a dead-end for years on this line.
